

JUDAH
arap BETT

LDI Facilitator

Mr Judah arap Bett is a seasoned corporate executive with over 30 years' experience with multinational organizations. Until recently he served as the Managing Director at Esri Eastern Africa, a subsidiary of the global ESRI and has joined THR Consultants as associate. Bringing on board a wealth of experience gained over the period.

Throughout his career Mr Bett has served in numerous Board positions, including being the chairman of the Eastern Africa Grain Council, a member of Council of Kabarak University, member of Trustees PCEA University, Elder and Chairman of Nairobi Baptist Church, International Chairman of Calvary Ministries (CAPRO), among others. He has demonstrated strong leadership and team building capacity and an ability to lead complex multi-stakeholder programmes across multiple jurisdictions. He is a recipient of the ELNET Ethical Leadership Award in 2018 for his role in conducting ethical business practices.

His areas of expertise include, Leadership, Strategic partnerships and alliances, Strategic Planning, Project/Programme Management, Private sector engagement & commercially sustainable solutions, Social impact networking.

Mr Bett holds a Diploma in Pharmacy, bachelor's degree in Management Science, Master's degree in Business Administration and Executive Director Course (Strathmore University Business School).